

I was under the impression that biased political agendas can not be broadcast over the public airwaves without a balancing equal time being given to the other side. This is a blatant use of the public airwaves for a partisan political gain. This is not news. It is a political advertisement. The only way to balance it is to either disallow it or broadcast Mike Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11 right after it.